

Jive after Five

Casual get-together for Expats

Are you an international expert or management team member and new to our region? Our newly designed series of events «Jive after Five» will help you get settled in our region in an informal yet informative environment:

Wednesday, 10 April 2019, 5 p.m. – approx. 7 p.m.

«Feel Good Music Bistro», Bahnhofstrasse 33, Grenchen

5 p.m. Welcome address - Susanne Sahli

5.15 Swiss tax and social security system:
What should you know as an expatriate? - Simone Fluri,
Certified Tax Expert, Master of Law, is a tax advisor at BDO AG working with individuals and companies in Switzerland and abroad on tax and social insurance issues.

5.45 What's up in Grenchen? - Susanne Sahli

6 - 7 Apéro und casual networking

The event will be accompanied by live music from the bistro's co-owner and "Basement Saints" frontman Anton Delen

Please register by Monday, 8 April 2019: expats@grenchen.ch. Spouses are welcome.

Mark your calendar:

Our next events takes place on 4th July and 17th October.

How to get there
«Feel Good Music Bistro» is located approx. 3 minutes from the train station. Parking spaces are available at the train station.
www.feelgoodmusicbistro.com

Your host, Susanne Sahli, returned to her roots after 15 years of living and working in Asia. After being an Expat and setting herself up as Entrepreneur in Hong Kong and Switzerland, she is now a Partner at Stanton Chase Switzerland, one of the leading Leadership and Executive Search Firms globally. She is further a board member of the 'Start-up Center' of her home Canton Solothurn. In 2018, she was appointed honorary member of the Swiss Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong after a 10 years tenure as Board Member and President (2011-2014).

We look forward to seeing you at «Jive after Five»!